

An impressionistic painting of a path through trees. The path is rendered in warm, earthy tones of brown and tan, leading from the foreground into the distance. The trees on either side are painted with vibrant, textured brushstrokes in shades of green and blue, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall style is expressive and somewhat abstract, focusing on light and color rather than fine detail.

Naturblick

Malerei

Christa Vater & Kristin Pohl
Ausstellung im Solarzentrum MV in Wietow
Vernissage: 25. April 2009 - 17 Uhr